

SINGING WITH MR. FRANK

HOW TO WRITE YOUR OWN SONG!

Many of you may be dreaming about what you will do when this is all over and we can go out again. I know I am! Here is a song writing exercise sung to the tune of "She'll be Coming Round the Mountain."

ORIGINAL:

She'll be coming 'round the mountain
when she comes.

She'll be coming 'round the mountain
when she comes!

She'll be coming 'round the mountain,
she'll be coming 'round the mountain,
she'll be coming 'round the mountain
when she comes!

EXAMPLE:

I'll be going out to eat
when it's all done.

I'll be playing with my friends
when it's all done!

I'll be giving lots of hugs and having lots of fun.

Oh, I just can't wait
'til it's all done!

Fill in the blanks below to write your own song to the tune of "She'll Be Coming 'Round the Mountain":

I'll be _____ when it's all done.

I'll be _____ when it's all done!

I'll be _____ and

_____.

Oh, I just can't wait 'til it's all done!

Since being at home, I have noticed how much I enjoy the outdoors. What is something you enjoy doing? Who do you like to enjoy your time with? What words of wisdom will you take from this experience?

Change the words to "Row Row Row Your Boat" to capture things that bring you joy.

ORIGINAL:

Row, row, row your boat
Gently down the stream!
Merrily, merrily,
Merrily, merrily,
Life is but a dream.

EXAMPLE:

*Drive, drive, drive my car
With my family!
Giggling, giggling,
giggling, giggling
Take the time to smile*

This last one is up to you! Write a song adapted from "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star." Share a wish or a feeling you are having.

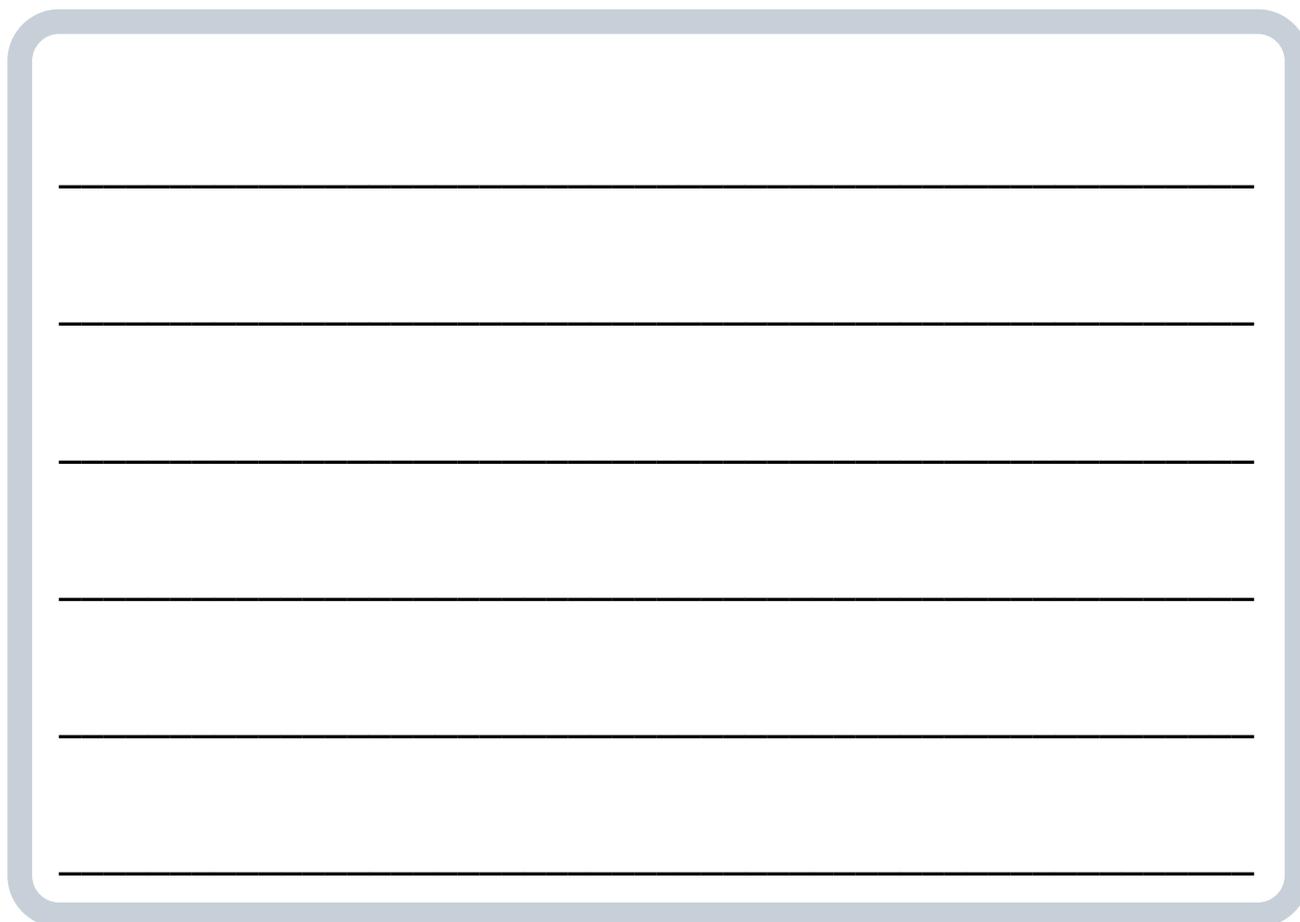

ORIGINAL:

Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wonder what you are
Up above the world so high
Like a diamond in the sky
Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wonder what you are.

EXAMPLE:

*Distant, distant, far from you
Boredom, boredom, what to do
Wishing we could play all day
Passing all the time away.
Distant, distant, far from you
Boredom, boredom, what to do*
