

MAKE YOUR OWN CREATIVE ACTION "4C" QUESTION JAR

At Creative Action we talk about being "4C" students. That include all of us! What are the 4Cs? They are: Critical Thinker. Confident Leader. Courageous Ally. Creative Artist. You can talk to your friends and family about what it means to be a 4C student. Here are some good questions for you to ask yourself and others. Follow these easy instructions for how to make a jar full of fun questions to ask. Bonus challenge: do you spot the 4 C questions?

1. Find a clean jar with a lid that you can easily fit your hand into.
2. Decorate the lid and jar with stickers!
3. Print off the questions (we've included a black and white version and a color version)
4. If you are using the black and white version, you can color in the sheet yourself 😊
5. Cut out each question in a long strip, following the chart lines
6. Roll up each question and put each one into the jar.
7. Shake up the jar!
8. Use these any time you want to ask another person a fun question!
9. You can ask YOURSELF these questions too!
10. Keep the lid on the jar so that they don't fall out!
11. Make your own questions and add them to the jar!
12. Make a set for a friend and gift it to them :)
